

Vol. XLIV...N^o. 13,803.

THE WAR IN CHINA.

ALL THE FOO CHOW PORTS DESTROYED.

DEPARTURE OF THE FRENCH FLEET—TOUQUIN YET TO BE INVADIED BY THE CHINESE.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 29, 4 p. m.—The French fleet has destroyed the remaining Chinese works at the Min River to-day, but what its destination is remains uncertain. It seems probable that it will come to Shanghai.

European residents of Shanghai remain unmolested. Many of the Chinese, however, have been alarmed and are leaving the city and the foreign settlement. The Chinese chief magistrate of the city and the consuls have issued placards urging the natives to remain in their homes, as the French have no present intention of attacking Shanghai or Woosung.

The Chinese authorities here have received an important telegram from Peking, the purport of which is not precisely known. There are revived reports, however, that China is desirous of coming to an agreement with France.

The Viceroy of Canton has ordered all Frenchmen to leave his province immediately.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Times's Foo Chow dispatch dated 8 o'clock last night says: "Since the French descended the river the Chinese have looted and set fire to the foreigners' quarter of the city. Much dissatisfaction is expressed at the action of the French in bombarding the city without landing the troops for the protection of foreigners. It is reported that Germany has protested against this action. The Chinese complain that English pilots guided the French fleets during the engagements thus committing a breach of neutrality laws."

A Foo Chow dispatch explains that the foreigners' quarter looted by the Chinese since the French descended the river is the one near the Arsenal.

The Times's correspondent at Foo Chow telegraphs as follows: "The foreign settlement is quiet. In the city the natives behave friendly."

CHINESE EVASION OF TONGKIN.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—General Millot, commander of the French forces in Tonquin, telegraphs that the Chinese are making preparations to invade Tonquin. He awaits their advance with confidence.

An official report concerning the Langson affair has been received from General Millot, the commander of the French forces in Tonquin. General Millot praises the valor of Colonel Degenne, who was in command of the detachment sent to occupy Langson, but says he acted too precipitately.

Colonel Degenne was under orders to occupy Langson peacefully. When he found himself confronted by an opposing force of Chinese, the general, which he had received no orders to surrender, Colonel Degenne ought to have asked further orders from General Millot by means of the telegraph.

The French newspapers are exultant over the successes which have attended Admiral Courbet's efforts in destroying the defenses along the river Min between Fochow and the sea.

During the better feeling which prevails in consequence of rumors to the effect that China is disposed to enter into negotiations for the settlement of the Tonquin question, routes were quoted from the opening of the house this morning at 78 francs 87 centimes.

Germany has prohibited the departure of the two recently launched boats of Kiel. Their commanders and crews will return to China.

THE RAVAGES OF CHOLERA.

A LARGE NUMBER OF CASUALTIES IN ITALY—AN INFECTED SHIP AT CADEFFE, ENGLAND.

NAPLES, Aug. 29.—Much unpropitious opposition to the transportation of cholera patients to the hospital prevails among the populace of this city. Forcible opposition was yesterday offered as a person stricken with the disease was being conveyed to the hospital. The rioters wounded and otherwise maltreated several policemen. At the same time crowds of women assailed the children's schools for fear that the children, if they become unwell, would be taken to the hospital. The syndic has asked the authorities to keep vigilance on the people in this respect.

ROME, Aug. 29.—The daily bulletin showing the ravages of the cholera in Italy, for the past twenty-four hours, states that 4 persons have died of the disease in Modena, 11 in Macra, 10 in La Spezia, 1 in Turin. The number of fresh cases is as follows: At Bergamo, 6; Bologna, 6; Cagliari, 1; Caserta, 1; Cosenza, 1; Ferrara, 1; Genoa, 1; Grosseto, 1; Lodi, 1; Mantua, 1; Milan, 1; Modena, 6; Naples, 4; Parma, 1; Pavia, 3; La Spezia, 30; Turin, 1. At Villaggio there has been a total of 18 deaths.

MARSEILLE, Aug. 29.—The report of the ravages of cholera in the southern provinces of France for the past twenty-four hours is as follows: At Arles, 6; Carpentras, 1; Nîmes, 1; Orange, 1; Toulon, 1; Vaucluse, 1.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—There were two deaths from cholera at Marseilles and five at Toulon last night. At Cassan, near Nîmes, there were five deaths yesterday.

The cholera is increasing generally in virulence in the infected districts in France. Where the disease spreads it is found to be of a milder type. In Carpentras and Perpignan, however, the mortality is becoming very high. At the latter place, the mortality is becoming very high. At the latter place, the mortality is becoming very high.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The steamer Espérance, from Marseilles, has arrived at Cardiff with two cases of cholera on board, and has been detained at quarantine.

THE GORDON RELIEF EXPEDITION.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—A mobilization committee, consisting of the Marquis of Hartington, Secretary of State for War, the Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in-Chief of the Army, General Lord Wolseley, the commander of the forces in Egypt, and the heads of the Army departments, met at the War Office today to arrange the details of the Sudan expedition.

Colonel Stewart has been ordered to proceed to Egypt to join the Sudan expedition.

As the Nile is rising steadily, it has already risen four feet in a day.

HENRY IRVING'S FAREWELL.

A FAREWELL BY THE DISTINGUISHED ACTOR—DEPARTURE FOR AMERICA.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—An enthusiastic demonstration occurred at the Lyceum Theatre last night, the occasion being Mr. Henry Irving's farewell performance. "Rip Van Winkle" was given for the first time this season, and was unusually well received. Mr. Irving was called to the curtain and in response to his hearty reception said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen:—We are now at the end of a brief career, and I leave for six months to again renew my intercourse with the great people of America. Our parting will be a sad one, but I shall return to my home, and I shall be glad to see you all again. I shall be glad to see you all again. I shall be glad to see you all again."

Mr. Irving concluded by warmly thanking the public for its abundant sympathy and unswerving kindness. Mrs. Irving afterwards crossed the stage and kissed her husband repeatedly in the audience in response to the loud applause which greeted her. The curtain then rose, displaying the company dressed in the "Rip Van Winkle" costumes, those not engaged in the play wearing the ordinary evening dress. They received a decided ovation.

NEWS NOTES FROM LONDON.

COAL MINERS KILLED.—A terrible accident occurred today at the Blackstone coal pit near Paisley, seven persons were killed.

MR. BRADY'S TOUGH.—Mr. Charles Brady, the Irish Radical and Free thinker, has not settled the terms of his contemplated tour to America. He will probably not start till after the opening of Parliament, which is likely to again claim his week.

SOLDIERS KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—A dispatch from Newstead, India, states that the barracks there had been struck by lightning and that six soldiers had been killed.

RAINS DAMAGE THE PANAMA RAILROAD.—Panama, Aug. 29, via Galveston.—Tremendous rains in the mountains yesterday caused a washout last night at Obispo, on the track of the Panama Railroad. The cut is 120 feet long and fifteen feet deep. Travel on the road is suspended. Passengers and freight trains which left here yesterday afternoon returned today. The mails and passengers of the steamship City of Paris will be transferred tomorrow. The damage to the road will probably be repaired by Monday.

THE POPE'S TEMPORAL POWER.—Madrid, Aug. 29.—The clergy have started a monster demonstration in every church throughout the country in favor of the temporal power of the Pope. The first signatures to an address on this subject include the leading prelates and nobles of Spain. This movement has grown out of the speech of Senator Pidal y Mon, Minister of Agriculture and Commerce, made in the Chamber of Deputies some weeks ago, in which he spoke slightly of the restoration of the temporal power.

A SAVAGE AND BOLD THIEF.

HAMBURG, Aug. 29.—There was a bold attempt at robbery in this city today. A locksmith named Bornemann entered the office of a money changer, by the name of Moritz Kärner, and stabbed him in the neck. Bornemann then proceeded to open the safe, supposing that his victim was so seriously disabled that he could not help himself. But Kärner managed to reach a window, smash the glass and shout for help. At this Bornemann fled, without having secured any money from the safe. He was captured later after a violent struggle. Many weapons were found concealed on his person. He lived for a long time in America.

FRAGMENTS OF CABLE NEWS.

ONKSA, Aug. 29.—Many fresh arrests of nihilists have been made here.

EDINBURGH, Aug. 29.—Lord Elgin presided at a meeting of the Liberal Association of Scotland today. A resolution was adopted expressing confidence in Mr. Gladstone, welcoming his return to Scotland, and urging the reform of the House of Lords so as to prevent obstruction.

CARRO, Aug. 29.—Francis amounting to $200,000 have been discovered by the Ministry of Finance. Foreign officials of high standing are implicated in them.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 29.—M. Malon, the great Conservative leader, is seriously ill.

THE END OF AN ELOPEMENT.

A RUNAWAY WIFE MEETS A SUDDEN DEATH WITH HER BABY.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

TORONTO, Ohio, Aug. 29.—Sharon is a quiet little village in Pennsylvania. Three years ago among its inhabitants were the families of William Hamnerly and Peter Klein, both much respected. Hamnerly's family consisted of his wife and two children. Klein had a wife and three children, the youngest being a baby girl eight months old. The two families were on terms of intimacy. Klein kept a small shoe store and Hamnerly was a lawyer. One morning Hamnerly and Mrs. Klein eloped, taking Mrs. Klein's youngest child. Hamnerly had collected all the money he could and had raised several hundred dollars more by mortgaging his home. Mrs. Klein was completely prostrated by the blow and for a time her life was despaired of. She finally recovered and secured employment by which to support herself and children. The strain was too much and she again sank. When she recovered she was entirely destitute and her health was gone. Having no friends she and her children were removed to the Allegheny Infirmary at Pittsburgh, where she yet remains. During these years Klein has sought everywhere for his wife in order to recover his baby to which he was passionately devoted. In his search he has spent nearly all his money and has travelled thousands of miles. He had almost given up the search when fate threw the couple in his way.

About August 1, a letter addressed to Mrs. Hamnerly was received at Sharon. It was forwarded to her at the Allegheny Infirmary. The letter was from Hamnerly and in it he begged his wife to forgive him and asked her to return with him. He promised to support her and the child. The letter was signed "Wm. Hamnerly." Mrs. Klein was so overcome by the letter that she wrote back to him. She told him that she had recovered and was well. She told him that she had recovered and was well. She told him that she had recovered and was well.

At once started for the town. At this place he looked for the wife of the Mayor, to whom he told his story. The two then crossed the river and sought "Vates." He was found in the employ of the Anderson Fire Brick Company. Without discovering Hamnerly, Klein saw the man and identified him as Hamnerly. He then went to the home in which his former wife resided with Hamnerly. His appearance at the door caused the woman to faint. She quickly recovered and, having into Klein's arms, clung convulsively to him. He in vain for some time endeavored to loosen her hold. She seemed frantic with joy, exclaiming "Klein! Klein!" when at last she was freed of her hold. She was made to understand that he was her husband and had only come for the child her grief was terrible. She wept and pleaded but without avail. When at last she was freed of the child, despite the woman's screams and efforts and carried it off. She appeared dazed for some time, but at last picked up her three months old baby and walked hurriedly to the factory, where her husband was employed. On hearing her story, he turned pale and hastily quitted the office, returning with her to the house. What passed between them is unknown, but left alone on an evening train, carrying a small bundle. That night the woman and her babe disappeared. The matter created some excitement, but did not in a day or two. Several days later the dead bodies of a woman and baby were found in the water near Fairview, W. Va. Not being identified they were buried. A rumor of the circumstances reached Anderson, and it was concluded that the bodies must be those of the child and her babe. The bodies were recovered and identified. It is supposed that the woman attempted to take to Sharon and either gave out and died from exposure or committed suicide.

SAMUEL ROBERTS ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

THE REVOLVER WAS RUSSY AND DIDN'T WORK QUICKLY ENOUGH—HIS FORMER PULICATIONS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

WILKESHAIRE, Penn., Aug. 29.—On Wednesday afternoon Samuel Roberts, the denouncing promoter of Charles Parrish & Co., made a desperate attempt to commit suicide by shooting. The most strenuous efforts have been made by his friends to keep the matter quiet, but the facts have become known. Late on Wednesday afternoon, after an interview with Mr. Parrish, Mr. Roberts entered his room in the office of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. Two clerks were in the room. Mr. Roberts seemed excited and nervous. He asked one of the clerks to reach him a revolver which lay in one of the desks. No answer was given, and the clerk refused to do so. Mr. Roberts then turned to the other clerk and believing that Mr. Roberts intended merely to take the pistol away, the young man handed him the weapon, when placing the muzzle to the side of his head Mr. Roberts attempted to pull the trigger, but the pistol had been lying unused for a long time and had grown rusty. The chambers would not revolve readily and the trigger resisted the attempt to pull it.

Before Mr. Roberts could make another effort the clerk stepped forward and seized his arm, whereupon he was seized away. Mr. Roberts was taken home in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money from the sale of his shares in the company. He has no other means of support. His health is very poor. He is now in a prostrated condition and has not left the house since. Today he transferred to Mr. Parrish a large quantity of household furniture and personal property valued at $10,000. The particulars of his delirium of 21 years ago are now known. He was then booked for the Grand Jury Company at Pottsville and was discovered to be short in his accounts of a large amount. On the discovery of his pecuniary habits he fled to Wales. His father-in-law, Mr. Klessey, a wealthy man, settled the matter for him. He returned to this country and soon after entered the employ of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company. There is an impression abroad that the delirium has been undisturbed. Mr. Roberts has now transferred property of an aggregate value of nearly $9,000 to Mr. Parrish, and in addition to buying all his own shares in the past few years, he has received a large sum of money